Accordion

The musical score is written for an accordion in a treble clef with a 3/4 time signature. It consists of four systems of music, each with notes, rests, and fingerings indicated below the staff. The first system (measures 1-5) includes a 'V' marking above the staff and chord letters 'C' and 'G' below. The second system (measures 6-11) includes 'V' markings above, chord letters 'C' and 'G' below, and first and second endings labeled '1V' and '2V'. The third system (measures 12-17) includes 'V' markings above, chord letters 'F', 'G', and 'C' below, and a triplet '3' above. The fourth system (measures 18-22) includes 'V1' and 'V2' markings above, and chord letters 'C' below.
